Christina Gasparian joined the Los Angeles office of Bonne, Bridges, Mueller, O'Keefe & Nichols as an associate attorney in December 2018.

In May of 2018, Christina earned her Juris Doctor degree from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. She received a Bachelor of Arts in English Language and Literature in 2014 from University of California, Los Angeles.

While in law school, Christina was a member of the Hobbs Trial Advocacy Practicum. She also earned the First Honors Award in Legal Drafting and excelled in various law school courses such as Evidence, California Civil Procedure, Advanced Trial Advocacy, Advanced Legal Research, Advanced Torts, and Business Associations.

Christina was admitted to the California Bar in December of 2018, and is licensed to practice law before all courts of the State of California as well as the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

During law school, Christina gained practical experience as a certified law clerk at the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office where she conducted approximately 20 preliminary hearings, argued motions for the preliminary hearing unit and assisted with trial preparation for the hardcore gang division, sex crimes unit, and juvenile division. In 2016, she served as a judicial extern to Hon. Sandra Klein, United States Bankruptcy Court, for the Central District of California. She also clerked at a civil litigation firm, where she gained valuable litigation experience focusing primarily on products liability and consumer litigation.

After graduating from law school and while awaiting bar exam results, Christina was selected as an American Board of Trial Advocates Fellow where she completed a fellowship with Bonne, Bridges, Mueller, O'Keefe & Nichols, as well as a prominent plaintiffs' firm and a fellowship with Hon. Stephen Moloney of the Los Angeles Superior Court.

Christina is an active member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, including the Barristers/Young Attorneys sector, the Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles, and the Armenian Bar Association.
